WOMEN'S MINISTRY

BOOK: Art for the troubled heart (Dr. Rev. Val Hamann)

Art for the troubled heart is a Christian based art prompt low content creation book.

Filled with 100 prompts, guiding the artist to conduct interesting practical tasks, decorate pages with diverse artistic styles and engender the blank pages to creative personal journaling.

By identifying their emotional struggles and life challenges they can overcome them by creating something beautiful out of each page, transforming the negatives into positives and praying over their circumstances and emotions, as well as impacting others positively. Women love being creative and having fun and find prompt books very popular for connecting with God, others and discovering deeper and new things about themselves. Not all women are comfortable with attending counselling, this book will give them a platform to record their feelings, longings and relationship with God, while splashing their splendour with colour. Colour is therapeutic to a broken, hurting soul, lifting moods, aiding physical and mental health.

Available in e-book or paperback on Amazon.
